Remote Volunteer Application

Because I said I would is a social movement and nonprofit dedicated to the betterment of humanity through promises made and kept. We are changing lives through Promise Cards, character education in schools and correctional facilities, and awareness campaigns with global reach.

As part of our commitment to encourage volunteerism, we now have opportunities for individuals who want to support our cause but do not live near our office headquarters. Remote volunteers can share their time by assisting with list-building and data entry. Volunteers receive a template in Google Drive that lists the data we need and then use the internet to find that information, type it into the spreadsheet, and share it with our Volunteer Manager when done. Work can be done on the volunteer's own computer and at a time that fits one's personal schedule. Most of the list-building is focused on finding additional outlets where we can share our message, provide resources, and ultimately, better humanity through the impact of kept promises. This data finding/entering is not complicated work but is vital to our mission, and we are grateful to those who share their time and talents to serve in this way.
